

Press Release: XDD Acquires QDiscovery to Further Expand Services in Midwest and East Coast - QDiscovery: Make your case

Xact Data Discovery (XDD), a leading international provider of eDiscovery, data management and managed review services for law firms and corporations, announces the acquisition of QDiscovery, a mid-tier eDiscovery and digital forensic services provider based in New London, CT.

QDiscovery provides eDiscovery, forensics, managed review and consulting services to law firms and corporations. With offices in Chicago, Indianapolis, Boston, DC, Houston, Minneapolis and Phoenix, the newly integrated company and services will operate under the XDD brand.

Bob Polus, XDD President and CEO states, "As we continue to explore, expand and scale business operations within key markets nationwide, merging forces with QDiscovery further strengthens our presence in the Midwest and on the east coast. Congruent with XDD's culture, the QDiscovery team thrives on providing exemplary client service, making it a natural fit for our company as we continue to scale our eDiscovery, forensics and managed review services. We look forward to enhancing our company together."

David Barrett, QDiscovery CEO states, "Joining forces with XDD further empowers our joint vision to provide exemplary service to clients. Similar to QDiscovery's culture, XDD's people, strategy and grit are laser-focused on doing whatever it takes to exceed customer expectations. Joining the XDD family is a natural fit for our company as we strive to expand market share together nationwide. We look forward to integrating our people and clients into the XDD ecosystem."
